Washington, July 29 .- Senator Henry Cabot Lodge took the stand in the Mul hall inquiry yesterday at his own request to deny the statement in one of the Mulhall letters that the colonel had conferred with Chairman Charles E. Hatand Senator Lodge in the campaign of 1910. One letter had asserted also that Senator Lodge had praised Mulhall's work in Massachusetts,

"I don't remember ever having seen the man or heard his name until he appeared here as a witness," said Senator Lodge. "I meet hundreds of persons would be impossible for me to say that I never met him, but I never had any conference with him or praised his work. The year 1910 was an elecwent to state headquarters, as I had an office of my own in Boston. I have made inquiries of Mr. Hatfield and of my secretary, who was in charge of
